CORAM :DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.
April 12, 2007.

P.C.:

The relief which the applicant seeks is to implead her as the Respondent to the Company Petition for winding up or in the alternative to be allowed to intervene therein. From the affidavit in support, it appears that the applicant has a claim against the Company. Company Petition 730 of 1999 in which the relief has been prayed for by the applicant, was dismissed for want of prosecution by an order dated 8th February 2007 together with companion Company Petition 608 of 2002. In these circumstances, the Company Application would not survive. The applicant would be at liberty to adopt such remedies as are open to her in law for pursuing her claim. Since the applicant has filed the Company Application in person, the Company Registrar is directed to communicate a copy of this order to the applicant. The application is disposed of.
